

Clarity Coaching Institute 2007 Certification Program

Would you like to learn to help others discover life beyond limiting beliefs?

You are invited to a 2-hour orientation for Clarity Coaching Institute's 2007 Certification Program, a 7-month course providing catalytic support to develop deep proficiency in the practice and facilitation of conflict resolution via self-inquiry. The vehicle we will be using throughout the training is The Work of Byron Katie ("The Work"), a simple yet revolutionary technology that is rapidly changing hundreds of thousands of lives for the better around the world.

Throughout the CCI Certification Program, you will:

- Truly deepen your relationship with yourself and others through mastering the most efficient and effective conflict resolution process available today
- Develop awareness and skills that will empower you to become a gifted professional life coach and/or facilitator of The Work of Byron Katie
- Expand the repertoire of professional services you currently offer your clients with the innovative self inquiry of The Work of Byron Katie
- Bring new life to the abilities and gifts you already possess

Whether you are a graduate of Byron Katie's School for The Work or have just discovered the power of The Work, the CCI Certification Program provides:

- Consistent support in living The Work daily – personally and professionally
- Finely tuned appreciation understanding of the breadth and depth of transformation available through self-inquiry
- Feedback and interaction with others in a dynamic and empowering environment
- Experience and knowledge of how to successfully offer The Work professionally
- A safe, nurturing environment to discover and release blocks and fears that hold you hostage to limitation

Join us on Saturday, January 27, 2007 from 1 - 3 pm for an experiential and educational orientation to the CCI Certification Program. Orientation is free.

Location: University of Utah Guest House Conference Center, Room A.

About the CCI Certification Program

Many people have experienced The Work, but few take it as deeply into their lives that they experience the perpetual and life-changing benefits it offers. The Work* is much more than an intellectual change of perspective; it offers a portal to living from one's deepest heart and truth without reservation.

Self-inquiry via The Work can help you increase sales, improve your golf game, or even help you expand and deepen your relationship with the Divine. The versatility of application and effects are virtually unlimited – for yourself and those you serve.

Graduates of the CCI Certification Program will:

- Learn to practice and facilitate The Work cleanly, clearly, fearlessly and effectively
- Develop proficiency and grace in offering the most powerful tool ever devised to empower people to liberate themselves in any area of their lives
- Discover the life-changing and unlimited value of very simple service
- Experience and exemplify the radical freedom of loving what is
- Recognize and appreciate uncertainty as an asset and an advantage
- Network and grow with the support of people from diverse backgrounds and perspectives, celebrating the unifying desire to make a true difference
- Embark on a life of seamless living - full integration of living one's deepest passions while making a livelihood with them

The CCI Certification Program is designed for educators, coaches, mediators, mental health professionals, managers, trainers, health care providers, sales representatives, mentors, human resource management, alternative practitioners, business leadership, addiction/rehab counselors, hospice workers, special interest groups, health educators, and those in any service-oriented profession or endeavor.

What your clients will receive through your training:

- A versatile and impeccable conflict resolution process they can count on
- Increased compassion and appreciation for self and others
- Immediate and lasting shifts from fear to gratitude, from negativity to creativity
- Enhanced communication skills borne of deepened trust of self and others
- Freedom from obsession and distraction with things outside of one's influence
- Clarity of purpose and intention, empowering authentic choice
- Appreciation of the transformational potential inherent in each and every upset

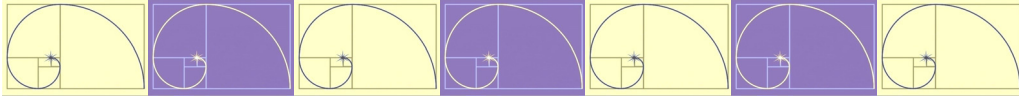

Other opportunities for CCI Graduates:

CCI's growing success has spread across the U.S., and we now serve individual and corporate coaching clients in the UK, Portugal, France, England and Taiwan. Some of the graduates of the Program may be invited to join us as Associate Clarity Coaches and will enjoy the benefits of many opportunities including client referrals and ongoing advanced training.

The first criteria for selection will be a demonstrated personal passion for living the principles of The Work as well as effective facilitation skills and professionalism. An additional prerequisite for eligibility as an Associate Clarity Coach is graduation from Byron Katie's School for The Work, either prior to taking this course, or by making a commitment to graduate from The School within the 12 months following CCI's Certification Program.

PARTICIPANT INVESTMENTS - Time and Resources:

The Program consists of:

- One full weekend retreat intensive (Friday pm to Sunday pm) - lodging/food provided
- Monthly Saturday training sessions (10am – 5pm) - lunch provided
- 3 hours weekly (minimum) for partnered exercises and co-facilitation, self-facilitation, and practice sessions with family and friends
- One public Saturday workshop hosted and presented by CCI Program Participants

All sessions are led by Kathryn Dixon, founder and director of CCI, with Associate Clarity Coaches Kathy Melby and Carol van der Meulen providing ongoing support throughout the course.

Participants will be required to facilitate a minimum of one taped session with either Kathryn or another Certified Clarity Coach prior to successful completion of the Program.

The total time commitment of the program will be approximately 180 hours spread over a period of 7 months. A detailed schedule including dates will be provided at the Orientation session.

Much of the between-meeting communication will be issued by email. Participants must have regular, reliable email and internet access throughout the program.

TUITION: $5,000

Payment by check, credit card or PayPal is accepted. Payment plans are available upon request.

The first training session of this Program begins February 17, 2007.

What graduates have to say about this training:

“The experience of training with Kathryn is one I would recommend to anyone who is serious about deepening their connection with The Work, themselves, and others, even if they're not interested in providing The Work for others. My ability to listen deeply, be present with the person I am facilitating, be present with myself, and allow The Work to flow thru me have deepened tremendously since I began working with Kathryn. My own capacity and willingness to move through areas in my own life where I once felt stuck, and afraid has changed significantly. My commitment to my own process with The Work has intensified and feels like a natural part of my life in a way I haven't experienced before, even after coming back from Byron Katie's School for The Work. The practical tools and techniques

Kathryn teaches are all effective and valuable. I am so grateful to Kathryn for her willingness to share her gift with The Work and life. It is certainly changing mine.”

“Since participating in this training, I find that there is more of myself in my life. I notice that I naturally choose to live from my truth, not the lies that have limited me in the past. I have moved from the, ‘Why? Why? Why?’ into true acceptance and contentment. I have come to see that every moment is perfectly orchestrated -- panic and fear about the future dissolve.”

“Working and training in an environment where there is a place for my heart, room for love, and the ability to access my wisdom—something I never found while pursuing a Masters degree in Social Work. I am continually awed by Kathryn’s compassion—her compassion for herself, and for us. This display of compassion has led me to see my own beauty and power. I think that the greatest gift that Kathryn has given me was when she made it clear that she was only looking for facilitators who LIVED THE WORK. WOW! Immediately it took me off the sidelines of life and directly on the court. The gentle transformation of my life since I made that shift has been sweet.”

About Kathryn Dixon

Kathryn Dixon founded Clarity Coaching in 2003 and has since enjoyed a thriving practice of private and corporate clients. She is a celebrated, published author, has been a featured guest on radio programs, and enjoys international notoriety as a facilitator, coach and trainer. Her focus has shifted from coaching private clients to training others to offer The Work in professional arenas via her Clarity Coaching Institute Certification Program. Kathryn currently has a staff of 5 certified associate coaches who provide direct client services.

Kathryn became an avid practitioner of The Work when she first met Byron Katie in Salt Lake City in 1997. Recognizing The Work to be the generic distillation of every true spiritual principle she'd come across in her lifetime of searching, she began within a year to offer The Work to groups and individuals as a service of the heart by donation. A graduate of Byron Katie's School for The Work in March 2000, she now serves as staff at The School for The Work. She was featured as the first guest facilitator when Byron Katie International launched the first facilitator support teleclass in 2006. (That interview is available to listen to on Katie’s website – www.thework.com)

Kathryn’s deepest passion is to wholeheartedly live and share the simple and profoundly transformative gift of The Work with anyone who would have it.
